

Text SD 44: Fight good against evil - evil against evil

"There is a mighty battle 'between light and dark' going on on this earth. And you see that the light spirit world has set in motion, as hardly ever before, a force among receptive earthly-powerful people that requires courage, spiritual courage, to fight against the powers of darkness, against those who want to deprive many, many people of their earthly bodies" (Weidner 2003a:107).

"When you have before your eyes the world events that are currently taking place, can you then give me an answer to my question: on which side is Satan working? There can be only one correct answer to my question: On both sides!" (Weidner 2003b:16).

"Satan's plan consists in the fact that he always sets up new war scenarios on this earth, and compliant people give themselves as tools for it. And what is lost to mankind as a result? The time for conversion. The time for a change of heart. The time for improvement. Because under this pressure of war hysteria Satan creates and stirs up fears" (Weidner 2003a:107/108). People are therefore in "enemy territory," so to speak.

"The present time, in which you have to struggle on earth, is under the influence of dark beings. But these are not the demons alone, in the first place they are the many earth-bound entities - former human beings - who, by their sagacity and their distinct personality, are not prepared to let the people on earth come closer to their God without causing them the greatest difficulties" (Weidner 1987:72). "Everywhere the driving force of evil is there to keep and dissuade people from the way to God by various juggleries. Yes, they influence you at all times, ... You are never alone, even in situations unconscious to you their acumen is at work, already drawing danger after itself and luring and calling..." (Weidner 1987:74).

"And so I say plainly: the battle between light and darkness has entered a new phase! The 'spirit-knowing' Christians, the followers of Christ, know it that there is always a battle raging between light and dark on earth. You call it 'religious wars' - but it is a wrong expression! It is a battle between light and darkness. Wherever you look, whatever you use your feelings for, and even if you believe in a 'just war', it is always an unjust war. Such conflicts are always 'unjust' because they are instigated by the powers of darkness. And if you believe that it is once about this and then again about that on this earth, then this is true only in the exterior, because basically it is always about the same, namely about the fight between light and darkness!" (Weidner 2003b:18).

Many technical inventions are good in themselves, "but Lucifer sends to these places profit-seeking people who change the device, and Lucifer and his followers then misuse the devices for their purposes" (Weidner 2001a:174).

"Evil ceases to exist only after it is met with courage; victory sets in only after such an encounter, and to flee is to abandon the battlefield to the forces of darkness" (Isaac 1985:57).

"We briefly recapitulate the main points of what has been said: Be clear that you are surrounded by good and evil intelligences!" (Weidner 1987:76).

Basically, there is no such thing as a "just war" (cf. Weidner 2002a:89).

"What is the reason that Lucifer has so much power over the mankind of this earth? Because he has his seat here and the earth is permeated and vibrated by lower vibrations and because the whole atmosphere around the earth is gloomy" (Weidner 2002b:106). And because so few people profess God and Christ in their thinking, feeling and doing, the atmosphere darkens further - or does not clear (cf. Weidner 2002b:106).

"You must never fear evil, ... whenever it makes itself felt, stand firm, surround yourself with the protection of the Christ Light, and then fight without compromise" (Isaac 1985:58).

Earth is a planet of atonement and penance. It is important because the spiritual development of people can happen up to 800 times faster than in other spheres (see Weidner 2005b:89). Therefore, the strategic goal of the negative side lies in the final destruction of the Earth, so that people lose a possibility of rapid spiritual development.

"Lucifer is it a thorn in the eye, if always new generations of humans grow up, thus are offered and grow up, and some or several escape from his realm" (Weidner 2009b:33). Therefore, the negative forces pursue a long-term, generational strategy on various levels.

For example, the negative side wants to "put a stop to this driving of God's law in finite succession through genetic manipulation. That means nothing else, that by gene manipulation of plants, animals and in secret also of humans the quality of the God-given order and the law sequence become distressed also in the spiritual and finite laws. ... This misery shows itself then, because, having left the order of God, the compatibility, ... the digestibility of these fruits with increasing mass is no longer guaranteed for the human being, the animals, fish, plants etc. ... For generations, their more and more manipulated life growth, plants, animals, sooner or later the digestibility is guaranteed only up to the half, thus 50%. With older people it still goes over there without any big difficulties. With young people and growing children it is a bit more problematic, because they cannot digest much of what is manipulated in their digestive tract and consequently have too little energy. So if these satanic traits continue to develop, and Lucifer thinks ... in generations, then in later generations, if the increasing manipulation of the plants continues to progress to two-thirds, only one-third is absorbable for the human and animal organism" (Weidner 2009b:34). At some point, people will lose their energy, their free will and also their ability to reproduce: "If not enough resistance is put up, the female hormones will change in such a way that the woman can no longer be fertilized and the man is no longer capable of procreation. And the children who will be born in some cases after all, with many changes of the brain and the body, will gain a foothold on this earth. And that is the satanic train that is already rolling" (Weidner 2009b:35).

Similar goals pursue other strategies of the negative ones, for example the atomic energy, which leads to a creeping contamination of the terrestrial habitat, the destruction of the atmosphere and its climate (pollutant emissions e.g. by burning oil) etc..

However: "You do not need to be afraid of the negative! Because the negative is not even 2% of the whole creation! 98% belong to God - in the kingdom of God, in the kingdom of Christ!" (Weidner 1993:61).

"Lucifer even demanded in the past from his people serving him faithfully to write a manifesto that there is no personal devil, but only evil, which, however, lies in the human being himself. Thus Lucifer has a cloak, he has achieved that officially he does not exist at all, but the evil that man does is in himself" (Weidner 1988:134, emphasis in quote). Thus, Lucifer moves evil into man, and he plans to let an indifference to good and evil develop. The people would think then: "In me is anyway the evil, the violence, the terror, the drive, the addiction, the greed etc., I am born with this and must therefore live with it!" For the one who knows about it, that Lucifer as the owner of the evil can transplant such a thing into the consciousness threshold of the people, this is no secret. that he can do this, ... is the decisive thing! Do not be deceived, he can do it!" (Weidner 1988:135).

"And Jesus also said, 'The children of darkness - that is, of matter - are superior to the children of light on this earth'" (Luke 16:8). What did he mean by this? Because the children of light, following the spiritual law of cause and effect, are afraid to do dishonest things, and the children of darkness are not afraid, the children of darkness will be richer in matter here on this earth, but by far much poorer in the hereafter!" (Weidner 2002a:52).

"Paul writes to the Ephesians, 'He who follows Christ does not struggle with worldly powers, but he struggles with invisible powers and authorities.' And Paul, after all, must know, for he has surrendered everything to Christ; for otherwise he could not say, 'It is not I who live, but Christ who lives in me.' Consequently, following Christ is a self-surrender after mastering the state of consciousness, for man has his free will after all. Christ does not force anyone to follow Him, but when a person has climbed this state of consciousness, when he is overflowing with love, when he feels the inner bliss within him and has become one with the cosmic forces, then he directs the cosmic ray of the cosmic Christ upon himself. The soul forces and the spiritual forces are then cosmically charged, and man has a state of consciousness far above the present one.

state of consciousness far beyond the present earthly sphere of thought..." (Weidner 1982b:44).

"The struggle between good and evil will not yet end on this earth. Every soul is placed on this battlefield. Now you are the fighters! You are means to the end in this fight, the courted link between high and low. You are the fullness that is at stake on this earth when it is a question of extending the power of Lucifer or extending the power of Christ. You are the ones who feel the decision within yourselves when you become aware that a tempter is there again or that one wants to tempt you from afar. But when you feel the urge within you to do good, then the spirit world of God is there!" (Weidner 2008a:183/184).

What is important is: "Faith in the good. And faith in the light. And faith in life! In the love of the Father, in the helps, in light beings, in everything good in and around you, in everything!" (Weidner 2003b:122).

"If you ... want to work for peace, do not hang your heart on any side of the scales that we messengers of God can just keep in balance. Be neutral! Pray much for the peace and spiritual progress of mankind! Send your forces of peace and love to the depot of St. Joseph, so that the spirits of peace may have power to dissuade the powerful of the earth from the selfish projects. I ask you once again: orient yourselves to God and to Christ, but remain neutral in your attitude, i.e. do not move towards any side of conflicting parties, because both are directed by Satan" (Weidner 2003a:96). We should send energy to St. Joseph's Depot "For peace in spiritual terms" (Weidner 2003a:109).

We should be careful not to generate thoughts and feelings of sympathy for any kind of unpleasant happening for any warring party - because otherwise we are partly responsible for it (cf. Weidner 2002a:85).

"As long as man is unaware of the development of forces toward the higher, he is for the most part little bothered by the forces of darkness and is left in relative peace. It is different, however, when man follows the call of development, then the struggle assumes the greatest possible dimension, which are permitted in the law. The demons do not want their secret to come to light, i.e. to penetrate beyond the threshold of consciousness of the great masses. Any training in the direction of God is an abomination to them, and therefore the struggle is waged with extreme bitterness. The stages of training that lead to higher resistance against the dark forces I will mention in the following: Thought control, strengthening of the will, increase of knowledge and abstention from food, because the higher receptivity for the intuition of the light messengers or the guardian spirit is connected with it" (Weidner 1987:128).

In this context, the more we are attacked by negative forces, the more this is a sign that we are - spiritually - on the right path (cf. Weidner 2005b:60). It is to be considered that negative beings attack or work mostly in whole groups: "If negative effects go out from a person, then always a whole pack or a whole horde of negative beings is connected, which want to bring you down! It is not one being, but many! A negative being usually uses one human being as a spokesman, and the others then fall upon him" (Weidner 2000c:35).

Therefore, in this global conflict, people should not take a stand for one side, but work ceaselessly for the good, the constructive, and the godly.

"It is small deeds or thoughts that have often and frequently led out of danger and attacks, whether from men or from dark forces. A great aid of this kind is prayer!" (Weidner 1987:80). This is to be prayed with great inwardness, with emphasis - that is, not lip prayers, for they "do not have the desired effect even in fear and danger!" (Weidner 1987:80).

"The even harmony and energy is an important defense block in the aura against negative attacks!" (Weidner 2000b:192).

"There is a luciferic day consciousness and a divine day consciousness. ... Why a luciferic day consciousness? Everything you do against the law, against the love of God, against your own life and against the life of fellow human beings, when you prevent others from ascending to God, then you think, feel and act in the Luciferic day consciousness. These are harsh words, and yet they are the truth. Now for the divine day consciousness: it becomes effective whenever you rise from the Luciferic sphere of influence. Then you serve God and gather with Christ" (Weidner 1984:26/27). "And where you yourselves cannot go further, because it is too difficult, because Lucifer has a share in your body, in your etheric body, in your emotional and intellectual body, there love sets against it, because that is the greatest weapon. It is love that Lucifer flees, that Lucifer shuns. You can escape his temptations and temptations only if you love. And that is why ...thought science, universal consciousness or universal thinking, is so important, for therein lies the climax, love" (Weidner 1984:51/52).

"...Fear thoughts are forerunners that unpleasantness is coming your way. Please observe your fellow brothers and sisters and their environment: don't they almost all live in a haze of fearfulness? Why is that so? Because the earthly atmosphere of your planet from the realm of the great fear monger, i.e. Lucifer and his followers, catches cloudy misty impulses of fearful thoughts and, saturated with them, resonates with people in so far as they have an effect on their souls like poisonous exhaust fumes" (Weidner 1999:70).

For the positive, light-filled forces, it takes a great expenditure of energy to "get through" to people. "Only when we come close to the earth, a great energy potential is needed to 'get through', because the powers of darkness 'push' all their energies towards us. They have, so to speak, already developed a tremendous counter-pressure in the 'stratosphere', so that light messengers can only get through at the behest of a high spiritual being - in the most extreme case at the behest of Christ" (Weidner 2003a:36). "Everything spiritually perfect flourishes in the inner silence, everything that comes from the spirit of love, that is, from God, is good; and every creature possesses the God-given ability to solve its life task for itself and for the overall good!" (Weidner 1994:13).

An important question is why certain violent acts or disasters happen while others can be prevented. Why were there many deaths from assassination in Bali, while that in London could be avoided? "The answer is actually quite simple: Because it would not have corresponded - in London - to the karma that many innocent people would have been transported into the hereafter - in Bali however already, because there it was about the 'law of the balance!'" (Weidner 2003a:75). It is important to always pray for the victims, "Father, forgive them and help them!" (Weidner 2003a:76).

When problems arise, one should always think of the solutions, not the problems. Faithful expectation hastens fulfillment (Weidner 1999:193).

Without upward there is no return to the Father (cf. Weidner 2002c:85). Therefore, we should build a "new defense" for ourselves "with the weapons of light" (Weidner 2002c:85).

Thereby the spiritual forces on earth are very active: "I say it quite openly: [The nuclear reactor] Temelin would have exploded long ago if the spiritual world had not held its hand protectively over it. And here it is first and foremost those spiritual powers who are concerned that humanity should make progress in spite of the many reactors that are struggling worldwide to produce what you call energy" (Weidner 2001a:139). The explosion of the reactor of Chernobyl "was admitted that you should learn to shut down, if possible, these dangerous sources of energy launched by Satan. But you do not do it, and what mankind sows, it will reap" (Weidner 2001a:139).

Thereby there are the following weapons of light:

- 1) Always have the divine consciousness, "I am a child of God."
- 2) Never lose sight of the goal set for oneself as a child of God: "Home to the Father".
- 3) Awakening the (divine) consciousness in every moment: In material life, in soul life and in spiritual life.

- 4) Separate the useful from the useless. The question always arises: Is something useful for spiritual development, for charity, for doing good or for health?
- 5) Resistance when someone or something wants to whisper something negative to me.
- 6) Abstinence in all actions, especially alcohol, pleasures of the palate or sensuality.
- 7) Not giving free rein to emotional life (cf. Weidner 2002c:86-89).

The opposite, thus the negative forces can attack up to the 3rd atmospheric ring, there the influence of the negative is still enormous (see Weidner 2001a:123). However, this is also already a purification sphere.

Here the following is important: "The opposition usually expresses its power position only so far that it is just superior to the human being. This is a subtlety by which you shall recognize the intelligence that is at work here. If he were to show all his power, it would be easy for humans to escape his influence through this knowledge. His tactics go so far that he tries to blur and disguise revelations of his power immediately again" (Weidner 1987:129).

"The antagonist knows which people, according to their charisma, should remain in his sphere of power and which should outgrow it. So he can throw all his fighting power on those who are incorporated to bring light to earth humanity" (Weidner 1987:130).

That is why people should reach at least the 4th Atmospheric Ring, 4th Sphere (cf. Weidner 2001a:124).

However, God loves Lucifer or Satan just as much as Christ, "because they are all his children!" (Weidner 2003a:30). Islamic tradition also says that Lucifer served God thousands of years before the creation of Adam-and that he later fell away from God (cf. Schimmel 1975:194).

"That which tempts men to evil deeds is not the evil in them, but the good they see in them in a wrong view and under a distorted perspective" (Merton 1954:80).

One of the greatest successes of the opposition was to make people believe that, that evil did not exist: "This also manifests itself in a mass psychosis set in motion on behalf of Lucifer and already widespread: 'There is no Satan, evil is in man himself'" (Weidner 2003a:51). The evil, negative can be traced back to the temptation of many people and spiritual beings to feel equal to God, with the idea. "I can do that myself". Seen in this way, this kind of thinking and feeling is definitely also in every human being in the form of the small ego. And Satan or Lucifer are nothing else than former high spirit beings, which are also addicted to this thinking. And these fallen, high spirit beings lead the people very successfully into the misleading.

The existence of "demons" is real, but not in the sense that they were created by God as demons: "The creator has not created them as demons, but they have left the rotation with their free will against the law of development and have been condensed by the impact - and this not only once, but repeatedly and again. This is just the situation of the falling away from God!" (Weidner 1995:28). But also all "demons" can return to God - if they want to - and become perfect (cf. Weidner 1995:28/29).

In this, the Creator is "never in a hurry" (Weidner 2003a:64). The Creator "sends forth peace, love and harmony into all His creation for all eternity. The powers of darkness, however, are the oppressors of mankind. They are always in a hurry to seduce and tempt people. And just in the present time and in the coming time, because their influence on the people bends to the end!" (Weidner 2003a:64). If we work with God's blessing in a concentrated way, no serious mistakes will happen to us, but if we are driven to haste by "greed", aspects of the negative, we make mistakes, suffer damage to health, thinking power and hurt our neighbors (cf. Weidner 2003a:66/67).

There is a right time intended by God for everything - and if we let ourselves be guided by God, everything happens at the right time and in the right place.

We should also not waste energy, but preserve energy - for the work for the kingdom of God (cf. Weidner 2003a:67).

In this context, "Do not resist evil" (Matt. 5:39), "but affirm what is God's will and do everything for its realization" (Wieder 2002b:191).

"The Creator did not create 'evil.' This so-called 'evil root' is represented in the Old Testament, according to your earthly tradition, in the fall of the angels, but also with the consequent expulsion from paradise. After the split, the apostasy from the creator in 'good and evil', the loving principle of God, embedded in man as God's spark of light, stands opposite the selectable alternative, the 'particular will' of the egocentric doing, which decides against the will of God. We explicitly point out that the good in the form of love is always more powerful than the egocentric evil" (Weidner 2011:70).

"Among the so-called cultural people of Western influence, but especially among many 'scholars', the becoming conscious of transcendental influences has been suppressed because of their intellect thinking. By not becoming conscious, however, the demonic is not annulled. With this working of the demonic powers a great move has succeeded in the so oriented mankind. Because their working in the hidden is not classified by the majority of the earth people as dynamically negatively working power of a transcendent sphere world, but only more as word name for destructive, morbid psychic contents of the human being or even as 'pure superstition' dismissed" (Weidner 2011:75/76).

"Dear brothers and sisters, the powers of darkness ..., where do they set in? At your weakest points; and these weakest points can still be so small, they will be drilled out further and further, if one does not counteract with the will and with help from above" (Weidner 2000b:143).

The best way to help the luminous forces is in active charity and in our own spiritual development. Let us help wherever we can, wherever a situation or a person is brought to us, wherever help is needed. And let us trust in God and his help.
